A Brief About The Destination

The North-East of India is where nature feels untouched and time slows down. Assam welcomes you with vast tea gardens, the mighty Brahmaputra River, rich tribal culture, and the world-famous one-horned rhinoceros of Kaziranga National Park. Spiritual serenity meets river island life at Majuli, the world's largest inhabited river island.

Crossing into Meghalaya, the “Abode of Clouds,” landscapes transform into rolling hills, pine forests, waterfalls, crystal-clear rivers, and charming hill towns like Shillong. From the turquoise waters of Dawki to the misty valleys of Cherrapunjee and the serene beauty of the Garo Hills, this journey is immersive yet relaxed — thoughtfully curated for travelers aged 35–65 who seek comfort, culture, and scenic beauty without strenuous treks.

Trip Highlights

- Jeep Safari at Kaziranga National Park (UNESCO World Heritage Site)
 - Leisurely Brahmaputra River experience
 - Cultural exploration in Majuli's Satras (Vaishnavite monasteries)
 - Comfortable sightseeing in Shillong – the Scotland of the East
 - Boat ride in crystal-clear waters of Dawki
 - Waterfalls & scenic viewpoints in Cherrapunjee
 - Soft nature walks (no difficult treks)
